► Adult Reentry Grant Program

- This program, which is administered by the Board of State and Community Corrections (BSCC), provides grants to community based organizations to support individuals who were formerly incarcerated in state prison.
- For 2018-19, BSCC received $50 million in one-time funding for the program, including $25 million for rental assistance, $15 million for rehabilitation of existing buildings for housing offenders released from prison, and $9.4 million to support individuals making the transition from prison to communities. BSCC is currently in the process of reviewing proposals and anticipates that grants will begin on August 1, 2019.

► Innovative Programming Grants (IPG)

- This program, which is administered by the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation (CDCR), provides grants to nonprofit organizations to deliver in-prison rehabilitation programs.
- For 2018-19, CDCR received a total of $7 million for IPG, including $4 million in ongoing funding from the Inmate Welfare Fund (IWF) and $3 million from the General Fund that will expire at the end of 2018-19. Both houses adopted an additional $1 million in ongoing funding from the IWF beginning in 2019-20, as proposed by the Governor.

► Specialized Treatment for Optimized Programming

- This program provides services for parolees, including substance use disorder treatment, transitional housing, counseling, and employment services through contracts administered by CDCR.
- For 2018-19, CDCR received $68 million for the program, including $34 million from the General Fund and $34 million in reimbursement authority.
